Re: United States v. Awilda Reyes, 24 Mag. 503 (UA)

Dear Judge Figueredo:

As counsel to Ms. Awilda Reyes, I write to respectfully request that Your Honor endorse the attached order directing the U.S. Marshals Service to arrange for and fund Ms. Reyes' travel from New York, New York to Arizona for her hearing Friday, February 16, 2024.

As background, on February 2, 2024, Ms. Reyes was arrested in New York City on a warrant out of the District of Arizona. She was released on conditions the same day, including the condition of a $30,000 bond signed by one financially responsible person. As a condition of her release, Ms. Reyes was also ordered to attend her next Court date in the District of Arizona. Ms. Reyes has an initial appearance in Arizona scheduled for February 16, 2024, at 2:00 PM. I write to request that the Court issue the attached order directing the U.S. Marshals Service to arrange for and fund Ms. Reyes's travel to the District of Arizona (Tucson) on or about February 16, 2024. Ms. Reyes is indigent and qualifies for this relief under 18 U.S.C. § 4285.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/_____
